LOCKDOWN DIARY

What is lockdown? It is combination of two words, lock which means closed and down which means shut. It is actually a requirement for people to stay where they are, usually due to specific risk to themselves or to others if they move freely.

Presently a virus named Corona or Covid-19 have been emerged in our country which is very dangerous and is effecting lots of life. As a precautionary measures our Hon'ble Prime-Minister announced the lock down. Any Anyone can go outside only in case of an emergency.

Before this lockdown period we used to go school for attending classes, play with friends, share our tiffins but now classes are held in online. Some children may not the facilities for online classes and are unable to attend the same. Many people went to vacations before the lockdown but now the trains have stopped. All social gathering are avoided.

In a nutshell this lockdown has adversely effected our regular lifestyle which we were habituated to. But the only boon to this is that we are able to spend maximum quality time with our whole family.

∴ Lock - Down & Me ∴

The blue sky becoms me,
The green field waves me,
The red rose blooms for me,
But I failed to pay any heed
to them,
For, I am in lock - down.

My school bag remains in a corner with sullen face
My water - bottle is empty for a long time.
My school dress also needs a wash.

I don't hear the horn of my
school bus,
More over, I am missing the presence of my friends.
For, I am in lock - down.

FEELINGS

I smile when I am happy,
I cry when I am sad,
I love when I am in affection,
It is bliss when I am in real happiness.

Peace comes from calmness,
Disliking tends to disgust,
Envy grows from jealousy,
Sincerity is the key words of honesty,
Joy lives in pleasure,
And I am the sum-total of these flavours.

Note: These feeling-words are taught in our English period by our English mum.
